

Write Ideas for Moving Picture Plays

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25.00 OR MORE WEEKLY

We Will Show You How

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100 and more for single scenarios, or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays, are located in or near NEW YORK CITY. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our SALES DEPARTMENT has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure,

You Will Earn $100.00 Monthly for Spare Time Work.

FIGHT WILL GO ON.

It Makes No Difference Who The Leader May Be.

"The fight will go ahead. It doesn't make any difference who the leader is to be, the cause will go on."

Col. Roosevelt thus commented on the result of the election. The Colonel read with satisfaction a stack of telegrams from Progressive leaders the country over, that showed that the Republican party had been smashed in nearly every State.

Roosevelt feels keen disappointment over the defeat of Oscar Straus for Governor of New York. Another disappointment was the defeat of Beveridge, of Indiana. But against these the Colonel found intense satisfaction in the victory in Illinois and other States swept by the Progressives. The Colonel declined to go into any discussion as to what the Progressive party would do in 1916 or if he would consent to lead it if the call came to him.

HEIGHT OF SMELTER STACKS

Saving in Metals in Smelting Process Increases With Altitude of Stack.

It is generally supposed that the stacks of smelters are built to a great height in order to get rid of the smoke. That is partially the reason, but it is principally because the higher the stack the greater the saving in metals to the smelting company. The action of the blast furnaces carries fine dust containing minute particles of gold or silver out with the fumes. This is first precipitated in what is called a dust chamber, a room several hundred feet in length and many times wider than the vent from the furnace. Much of the dust settles there. Then the fumes from the molten metal enter the stack. By that time their temperature is greatly reduced. The higher the stack the cooler the dust will become, and the wider it is the slower, relatively, it will move as it approaches the top. After it cools it loses a measure of its buoyancy and settles down to the base of the stack. The dust is gathered up by mechanical scrapers in the flue chambers, is dampened and pressed into little disks like biscuits. When these dry they are thrown back into the blast furnaces again.—Harper's Weekly.

WILSON STATES POSITION.

freedom of Enterprise for the Whole Country Will Be His Object.

ASKS THE PEOPLE'S AID.

President-elect Woodrow Wilson issued a statement in which he declared that "honest business" need have no fear of disaster as a result of the great Democratic victory, and pledged himself to secure a government released from all selfish and private influence and devoted to justice and progress. The Governor wrote the statement immediately after he arose from a sleep of eleven hours shortly before noon and immediately gave it to the newspaper men, who had besieged the Wilson home since early morning.

It was as follows:

"The result filled me with hope that thoughtful progressive voters of the nation may now at last unite to give the country freedom of enterprise and a government released from all selfish and private influence, devote to justice."

"There is absolutely nothing for the honest and enlightened business men of the country to fear. No man whose business is conducted without violation of the right of free competition and without such private understandings and secret alliances as violate the principles of our law and the policy of all wholesome commerce and enterprise, need fear either interference or embarrassment from the administration. Our hope and purpose is now to bring all the free forces of the nation into active and intelligent co-operation and to give to our prosperity a freshness and spirit and a confidence such as it has not had in our time."

"The responsibilities of the task are tremendous, but they are common responsibilities which all leaders of action and opinion must share. And with the confidence of the people behind us, everything that is right is possible. My own ambition will be more than satisfied if I may be permitted to be the frank spokesman of the nation's thoughtful purpose in these great matters."

President-elect Wilson sent the following telegram to President Taft at Washington:

"I warmly appreciate your kind message and wish to express my sincere personal regards."

To Colonel Roosevelt at Oyster Bay Mr. Wilson sent this message:

"My sincere thanks for your kind message. Pray accept my cordial good wishes."

Thousands of messages of congratulations poured in upon the President-elect. It required eighteen telegraph operators to handle the enormous rush of business which was suddenly brought to Princeton by the election of Mr. Wilson.

From Oscar Straus came the following:

"I congratulate you upon your election and wish you the fullest measure of success throughout your administration."

From W. J. Bryan:

"I am glad to report that you have carried my State, the city of Lincoln and my precinct. Your success here adds to my enjoyment of your national victory."
